Life Verse

Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And we all, who with unveiled faces contemplate the Lord's glory, are being transformed into his image with ever-increasing glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit.

- 2 Corinthians 3:17-18

Dear Class of 2017,

Congratulations on graduating! You have received an excellent education from some incredible professors here at CIU. They have prepared you both spiritually and professionally for your next stage of life.

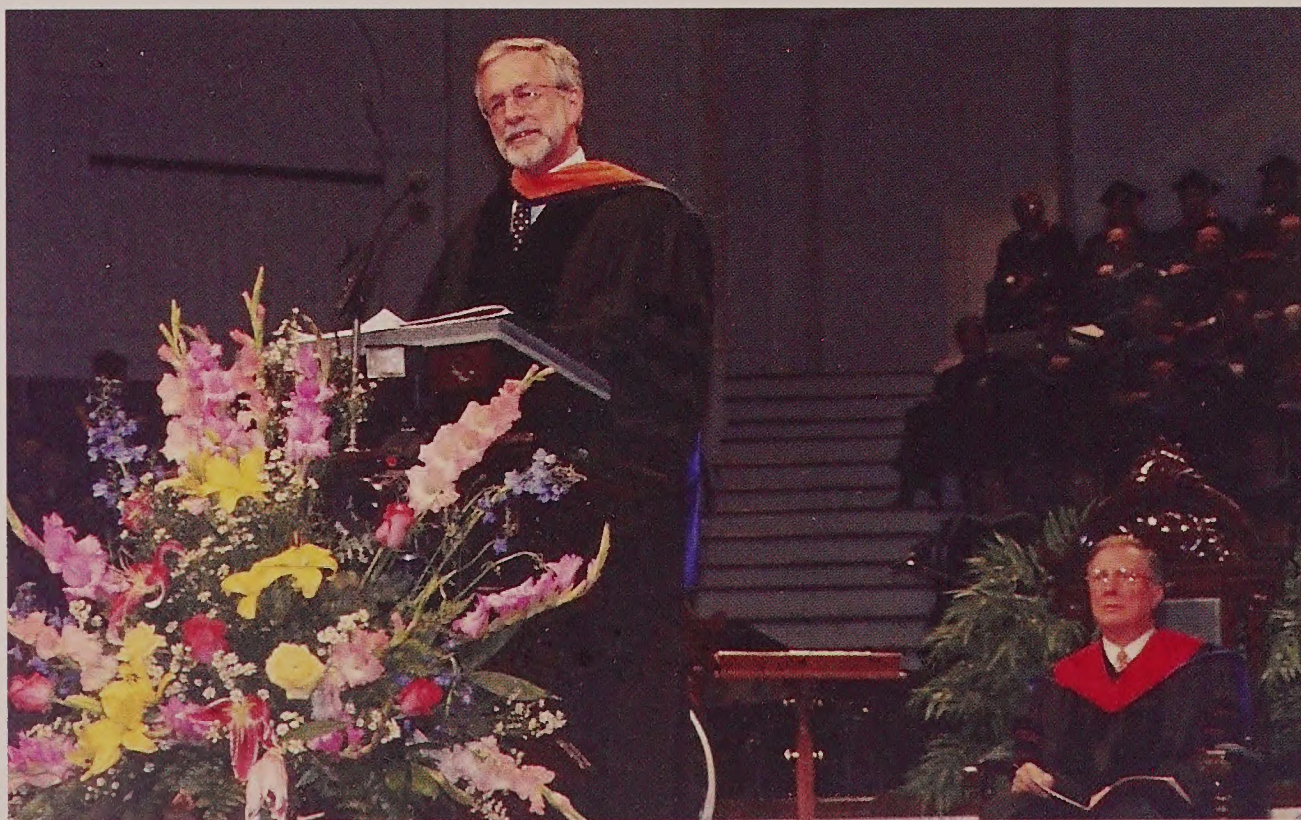

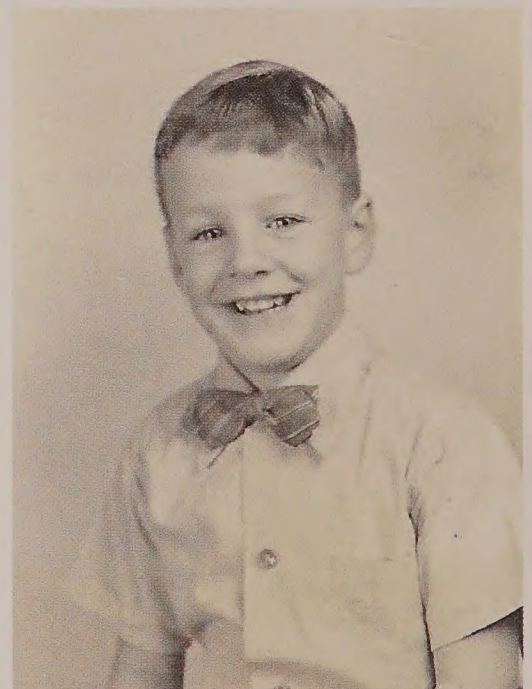

As you leave to make an impact on the world, do not forget the importance of living the victorious Christian life. Continue as a Biblical Christian growing both in intimacy with Christ and in imitation of Christ as you spend time alone with God and walk in the fullness of His Holy Spirit.

Enjoy the journey that lies ahead and don't forget to visit us in the future during Homecoming and any other time your travels bring you to Columbia.

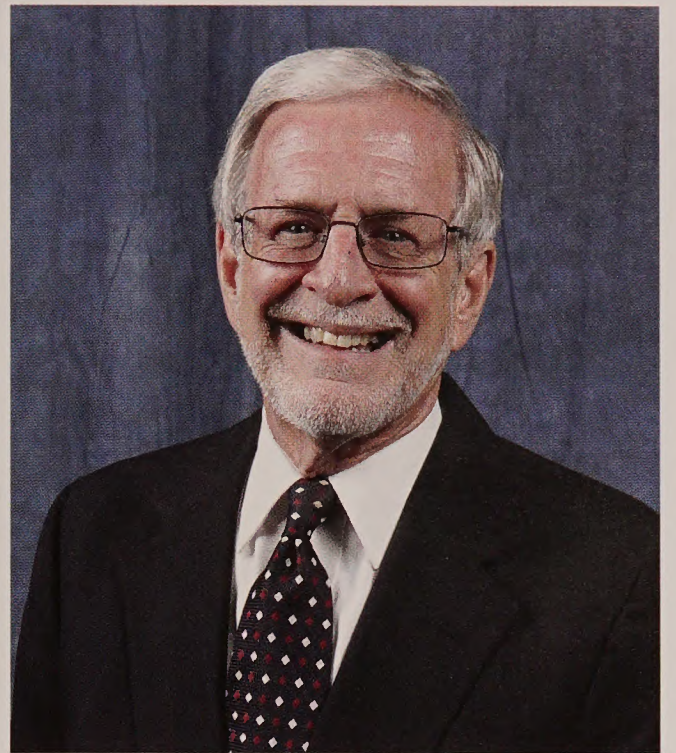

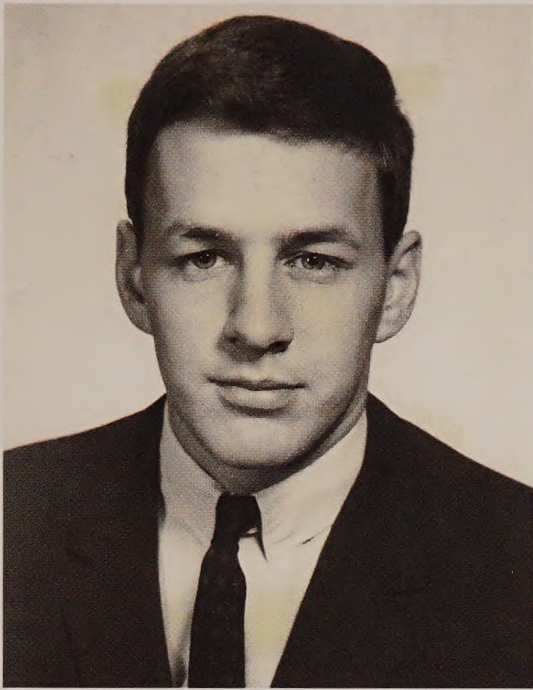

Bill Jones
President
Columbia International University

This 2016-2017 Finial is dedicated to
George W. Murray

Dr. George W. Murray

In 1963, a young man named George Murray came to what is now Columbia International University as a student, and today, 54 years later, the 2017 yearbook staff is proud to dedicate the Finial, CIU's yearbook, to Dr. George Murray.

A 1967 graduate of CIU, Dr. Murray's ministry experience includes being a missionary, a teacher, a preacher, a writer, and an evangelist.

Dr. Murray and his wife Annette were church planters in Italy with Bible Christian Union for 13 years. He then served as the general director for BCU for 10 years before BCU merged with The Evangelical Alliance Mission (TEAM), where he once again served as the general director.

For 15 years (1985-1999) Dr. Murray was a member of CIU's board of trustees. He became CIU's president in 2000 and in 2007 he assumed the role of chancellor at CIU.

Currently, Dr. Murray is the Stephen Olford Professor of Biblical Preaching at CIU, and teaches courses on Biblical Preaching, Leadership, and Missions. He has traveled and ministered across North America and in seventy-six countries.

Dr. Murray is married to Annette Murray, a 1969 graduate of Columbia International University. She is a licensed professional counselor. The Murrays have four married children, five grandchildren and two step-grandchildren.

Congratulations, Dr. Murray, for being the 2017 Finial Dedicatee.

On this night we made

PLENTIFUL REDEMPTION.

Sapientia

"House of Wisdom"

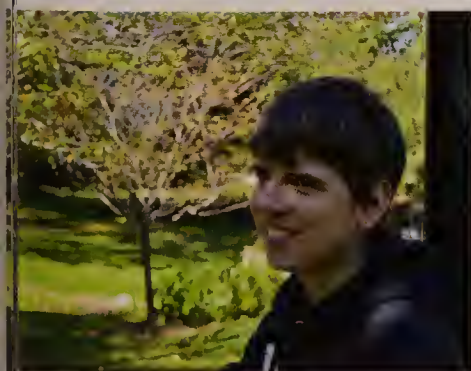

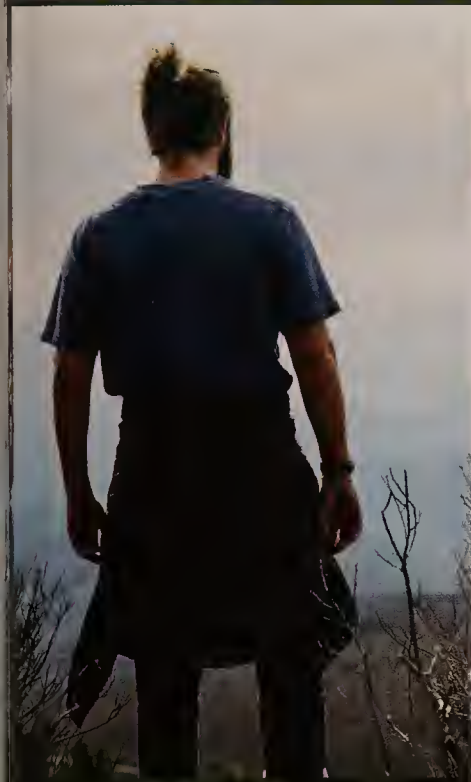

Proverbs 3:13 & 18

Blessed is the one who finds wisdom and the one who gains understanding. She is a tree of life to those who lay hold of her; those who hold her fast are called blessed.

Dignitas

House of Dignity

Colossians 3:12-14

"Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony."

Events

While much of our story consists of studying I think our favorite parts are the memories made outside the Library.

Spikeball// We at CIU have never known a sport that better encapsulates who we are as a student body.

Comm Chapel// Many of our chapels are planned to bring us closer to God and each other in ways that connect with who God made us to be and this is just one of the many examples

Hoedown// This was a night of dancing, partying and Sapientia Domination in all of the events.

Matchmaker// Our CIU Players put on this comical story that left us all rolling with laughter.

"Marriage is a bribe to make a housekeeper feel like a householder."

Chillin' on the quad// We enjoy chillin' on the quad especially when someone has come along with snacks and drinks that we may devour.

Hangin' with friends// Our friends being members of the body of Christ help keep our faith strong and have an awesome time.

Welcome from Rick Swift// Our one and only Rick Swift welcomed the new students to their new experience. He also armed them with new knowledge to survive College.

Lunch outside// This event happens on the daily because when its nice out, who wants to eat inside?

Welcoming the future.

Welcome Week//

Welcoming the new students was a proud moment. We all recall our first day and how we weren't prepared for the battle ahead.

Flaging down students// With the new house collective in place Staphen Gander flags down his new recruits.

Student Leaders// These are the fearless captains that lead the new students without fear.

Rallying the troops// These faithful women have come together under one banner in order to gather their courage before they delves into this new stage in their lives.

Standing together// This group of eastern men stand firm with valor against all the temptations of the enemy so that they may show themselves approved in the end.

Settling

Our new Home

As we prepare for years of adventure we must begin with the basics.

Praise Him//
Through it all we hope never to forget that Jesus is Lord and will praise Him even with our last breath

Meeting the Nurse//
We all encounter our own plagues and infirmities, our nurse has a cure for all ailments.

Orienting others//
While our soccer players are always busy they take time to show others around and orient them.

Moving men//
Many men helped to move our new adventurers into their new homes all around campus.

College Bound// Forging your way into the great unknown can be difficult but when you have a family backing you everything is a little easier

A brave new world// This young man brings many tools that will help him survive this difficult transition into adulthood.

Prayer Day

One of CIU's Core Values is Prayer and Faith. This is exemplified through the organized practice of dedicating days solely to prayer and setting aside studies and work. Faculty, staff, and students turn their attention to sit still in God's presence. It is a time where worries are laid down at the feet of Jesus, in an act of surrender. Corporate prayer and Scripture reading is shared to remind each person that God is the loving provider and praiseworthy King.

Prayer & Faith

Philippians 4:6-7

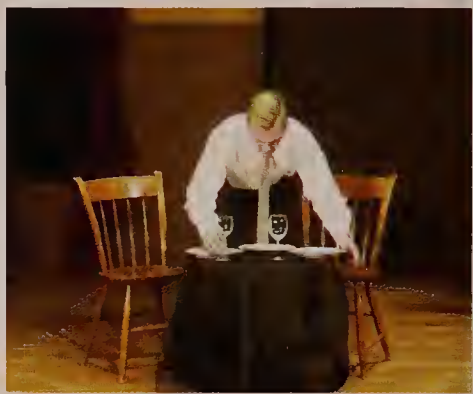

Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

"Turn your eyes upon Jesus, look full in his wonderful face and the things of earth will grow strangely dim in the light of his glory and grace."

1 John 4:18 ~ There is no fear in love. But perfect love drives out fear, because fear has to do with punishment. The one who fears is not made perfect in love.
v19 We love because He first loved us!
relational fears

° with others - lack of love = fear
love, marked by joy, real affection & sincerity

* when we truly understand/accept God's love for us, then our anxiety/fear w/ "lean into his love"

* ideal state of mind: only fear in God's because His love makes us perfect before

God & there is no fear/despair

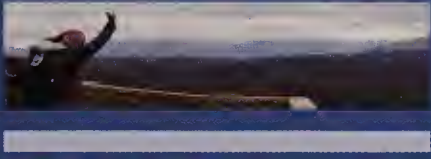

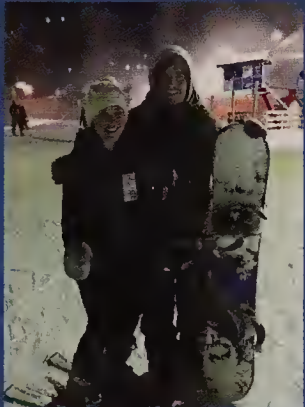

• love God is the right response (celebration)

• fervent/religious works, worried about God/perception

→ set free from our works to love God & others

The purpose of the Student Government shall be to serve the student body through complementing the educational experience, promoting an atmosphere of unity, contributing to the overall welfare of students, empowering students, and developing leaders. The Senate shall represent the students in the overall affairs of the university and oversee specific activities designated to it and agreed among by the Senate.

The Student Government shall be guided by the following values:

A) Servanthood: a commitment to serving those we represent

B) Unity: pursuing unity within a diverse community

C) Excellence: making every effort to excel in all duties and endeavors

D) Integrity: consistently modeling Christ-like character

Improv Night

1) In the "Park Bench" improv game, a person will adapt a self-created character and begin dialogue with the person sitting beside them. They create a scene together. To leave, one must create a reasonable excuse to dismiss themselves.

2) This game is called Bunny Bunny, where the group keeps a rhythm while passing an invisible ball. They receive it and then pass it making a " " gesture with their fingers and saying "bunny bunny." This game speeds up.

3) An improv game using the line "can I take your spot?" and pointing to a person in the circle was played. The person can not walk until they get a yes. Players practice reacting quickly.

4) Park bench game

January 27

a workshop to begin an improv group
Led by Ariel Vincent
Drew Lindman, and Bethany Barton

5) What's in your box game. Two people will go back and forth adding things to the box using the phrase "yes, and also"

TATTOOS AT CIU

Gabrielle Dover

Tattoo: self-painted evergreen tree.

God used Jeremiah 17:7-8 during a difficult season to remind Gabrielle of the life that can always be found in Christ. The tattoo serves as a reminder that even in dark or hard seasons, true life and true joy is found only in Him. The tattoo was also inspired by the Switchfoot lyrics, "I want to be evergreen; I want to live all year round."

Ryan Favor

Tattoo: half of a DNA strand

Ryan's tattoo is from NBC show Heroes. It symbolizes evolved beings. Ryan's dad has always inspired him to embrace his own special abilities.

Lance Kaminer

Tattoo: Bison at Grand Canyon

Lance was living there. It is a testimony of how nature proves how there has to be a God of Glory and that is whom I want to worship.

Abigail Siemens

Tattoo: Wildflowers

Wildflowers; The visible result of a life rooted in Christ and His word. Imperfect and wild, living unapologetically, and translating beauty to the world. It is a reminder to me to grow wildly and love without hesitation; to be a radical reflection of Christ.

Brandon Brazell

Tattoo: Cross larger than a ;
The cross is greater than depression.

Name: Moriah Siemens

Tattoo: Mountains

"It means home. Not just home is a place, but what I've made of my home and what my home has made of me."

Name: Hannah Stansbury & Madelaine Clayton

Tattoo: Crosses

To Hannah, the cross reminds her of who she is living for.

It reminds Madelaine she can lay it all down at the cross.

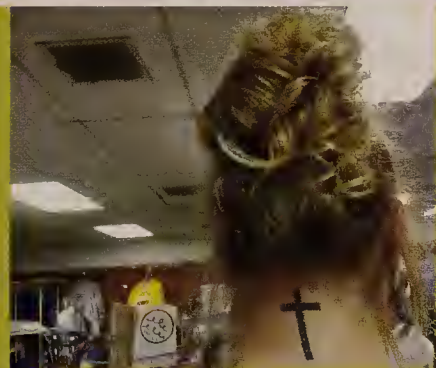

See a cool tattoo around? Ask about it. There are great stories out there.

Jordan Hobbs

Tattoo: negative cross.

He got it to symbolize Christ's sacrifice on the cross. It is depicted intentionally in such a way so that it serves as a conversation starter and it causes people to give a second glance to see the cross.

Sam Wammock

Tattoo: Cross

Sam's tattoo reminds her of God's grace on the cross amidst human brokenness.

Jonathan Eckmann

Tattoo: a 3-braided cord from Eccl 4:12

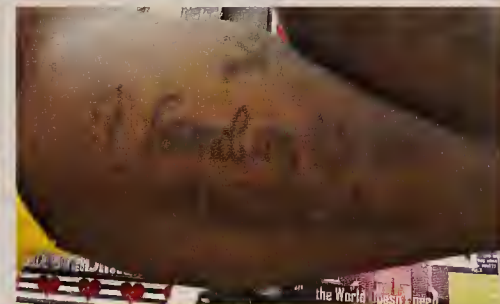

Jonathan shares this tattoo with his two sisters, each with a different colored strand to symbolize their bond.

D.K.

Tattoo: He > I

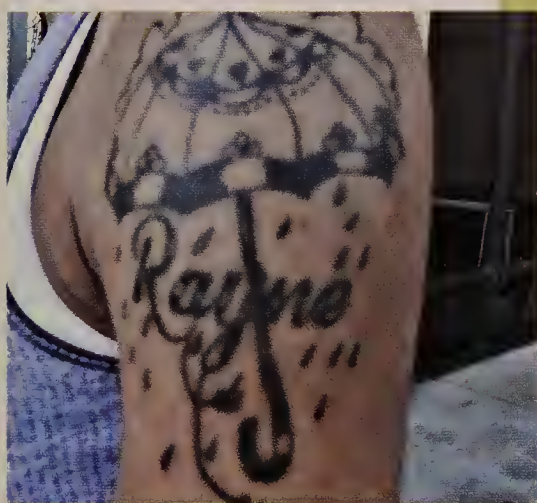

D.K.'s tattoo reminds him that God can do more than anything he can do for himself.

Yusef Jenkins

Tattoo: "I found my life when I laid it down"- from Touch the Sky by Hillsong

Yusef's tattoo reminds Him that God's plan is best. He is a vessel for God's glory.

Name: Aaliyah Knox

Tattoo: Aaliyah's tattoo of her niece's name Rayne goes with her tattoo of her mom's name Sunshyn. It reminds her that even when it is raining, we still got sunshine.

Brittany Black

Tattoo: "She taught me to fly"

Brittany got a tattoo with her mom which shows their close bond.

Sara Casas

Tattoo: "Free" with birds

God used Matthew 6:26 to remind Sara that His freedom is not earned but comes by God's love. The details of the tattoo shows that the freedom that was bought for her through Christ was bold and piercing. It is a reminder that God freed her from chains of perfection and performance.

Dear Reader,

I address you singularly; this is intentional, because everyone reading this will more than likely interpret this letter differently and likewise take something unique away. This book is named 'The Finial', and as we have pointed out at the start, a finial is the capstone of a building, something that marks its completion. If you know much at all of our school history, you may know the significance of that. This book marks the end of our year together: it shows us the connections we made, the growth in our lives, and hopefully reminds us of how we served one another.

This year we came together as a group of young adults with the purpose of receiving an education, and we found ourselves connecting with people in our houses, our classes, and even at our lunch tables. We have connected with new friends, created new families, and some have even gotten that 'ring by spring'. Whatever connections were made, realize that not all of them will be in your life forever, and some may leave very swiftly, so cherish the friends, family, and relationships you have built while you can. Life in this world is like mist: when the sun rises it will be gone.

I know I have grown more this year than any year previously, and I hope you have as well. In class we have learned more about the Bible, in our chapels we have learned more about God, and those in small groups have grown closer to the body of Christ. We have spent a lot of time growing. The most important thing I have realized this year is that you get out what you put in when it comes to your time at CIU. I have found I grow the most when I am helping others grow: I see places where I have not grown sufficiently more clearly when I am helping others.

Hopefully you have found some way in which you could serve this year; you more than likely had to serve in some capacity either because of a CSL requirement or because you simply love serving. Whatever the case, I hope that this service taught you something new, helped you find your calling, or strengthened your call. I hope those that served as student leaders or those that decided to step up and start something new were encouraged this year. It is absolutely insane taking on a leadership role for the first time, and even those that have done it before find it quite difficult at times. So keep going.

I would like to end by telling you all that I am thankful to have gotten to know you this past year, and I hope to grow closer as our lives continue to move forward. I have appreciated the late night cookout runs, the crazy shenanigans, and all of the prayer. This yearbook and my college career would not have gotten this far without the CIU family. Keep strong in the faith, because that is all that keeps us together: faith in Christ, faith in the body, and faith that this world is not ultimately all we've got.

Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor. --1st Peter 2:17

Love and peace from your editor,

This finial brought to you in part by The Rambler

The Rambler is CIU's student newspaper, published once a month. It's goal is to facilitate a respectful exchange of all ideas with the intention of challenging, informing, and uniting our campus. The staff may be seen attending meetings and writing articles, and on the side, they protect the school from opposing forces, such as knights in armor, fire-breathing dragons, and Bob Jones.

Editor in Chief: Michael A. Lanier
